

The Potters Dictionary

'A mine of information on materials, tools and techniques, The Potter's Dictionary is the essential reference book for potters. This is the book to turn to, not only if you have trouble with firing, cracking or glaze fit, but also if you really want to understand the science of clay and glazes.'

LINDA BLOOMFIELD, CERAMICIST

'The 6th edition of The Potters Dictionary is the definitive guide to the art and science of ceramics. It remains the essential reference book for all practising ceramicists and academics. With concise and lucid alphabetical entries, excellent appendix and good images, the book is inspirational as well as informative.'

VIVIENNE FOLEY, CERAMICIST

'The Potter's Dictionary is an indispensable reference book not only for potters of all ability levels, but also for pottery enthusiasts. It's exceptionally easy to use and comprises countless comprehensive descriptions which are supported with photos, illustrations, diagrams, tables, etc. It contains a lifetime's work and really is a must-have book.'
